

Introduction Aux Doctrines à Sotâ à Riques De L Islam

By Titus Burckhardt

Pris dans son sens strict, l'ésotérisme désigne la partie la plus , "intérieure" d'une religion, le domaine où s'organise sa recherche du secret de la réalité, de l'homme et du divin. L'ésotérisme musulman trouve sa source dans le Coran même, où la dualité d'Allah, Dieu apparent et caché, autorise la voie mystique. Comme la kabbale juive, le soufisme relève de cette quête de l'Absolu. C'À,À“ur spirituel de l'islam, il est le , "noyau" essentiel transmis dès l'origine pour fonder et vivifier le reste de l'édifice musulman. Avec Hallaj, Al-Ghazâli, Attar ou Ibn'Arabi, le soufisme a donné à la civilisation islamique certains de ses plus fascinants représentants que ce soit en terme de philosophie, de poésie ou surtout d'accomplissement humain. Bravant la diversité des croyances, le soufisme développe une vision universaliste des religions, fondée sur l'amour, et À,À“uvre comme un passeur culturel et spirituel entre Orient et Occident. Introduction à l'étude de la doctrine soufie, l'ouvrage de Titus Burckhardt entend contribuer aux efforts de ceux qui, dans le monde moderne, cherchent à comprendre les vérités permanentes et universelles dont toute doctrine sacrée est un mode d'expression..
