Hidden Treasures In The Queen City

By Danny Korman Katie Meyer

"Über den Autor und weitere Mitwirkende Danny Korman wrote the first edition of Walking Cincinnati with Katie Meyer and is living in Colorado after retiring his store, Park + Vine, in early 2017. Prior to this, Danny received a bachelor of urban planning from the University of Cincinnati and worked a series of rewarding jobs in program management for nonprofit organizations and government bodies. Danny is a big architecture buff, urban explorer, nature lover, believer in supporting local economies, and steward for the environment and animals. He likes to prioritize his activities when they're within walking or biking distance. Katie Meyer has a deep interest in how cities work and what makes them thrive. She has been working as the Executive Director for Renaissance Covington, Inc., a Kentucky Main Street Program, for the past 9 years. Her work focuses on creative placemaking, small business attraction, and most recently smart cities initiatives. Katie's interest in walkability stems from this work and has drawn her to appreciate and celebrate the architecture,
