

Todo Ubã° By Alfred Jarry Julio Monteverde Carreã O

"Críticas «Ubã° Rey es el principal personaje de Jarry y se ha convertido en un personaje teatral y literario típico, como puedan serlo Don Quijote o Hamlet y otras figuras de la escena y la literatura. ¿Por qué? Porque es un personaje único en su género que representa la herejía, la sátira, la desmitificación, la contestación, la destrucción, en una palabra, del concepto de autoritarismo». Enrico Baj «Jarry hizo algo mejor que escribir Ubã°. Fue Ubã°». Albert Thibaudet «Ubã° es la encarnación del anticristo sobre la tierra y, por consecuencia, una imagen inversa de Dios». Henri Bœhar Reseña del editor El gran ciclo de Ubã° se compone de las obras: Ubã°, rey, Ubã° encadenado, Ubã° cornudo y Ubã° en la colina. La presente edición, a cargo de Julio Monteverde • la más completa hasta la fecha en lengua castellana • recoge todas estas obras en una nueva traducción, y suma otros documentos inéditos y esenciales, como por ejemplo los dos «Almanaques», por primera vez traducidos íntegramente al castellano, así como gran cantidad de textos y fragmentos en los que la redondeada sombra de Ubã° se proyecta sobre la obra de Jarry. Biografía del autor Alfred Jarry (1873-1907), poeta, dramaturgo y novelista, es sin duda uno de los autores claves para entender la modernidad. Creador de la "Patafísica" ciencia de las soluciones imaginarias, vinculado generacionalmente al simbolismo, precursor del teatro del absurdo, del dadaísmo y del surrealismo, su obra sigue representando un inagotable arsenal con el que enfrentarse a un presente grotesco. Iniciado en la adolescencia como ejercicio de sátira sobre un espectral profesor de liceo, el ciclo de Ubã° es la obra dramática más representativa de Jarry. El personaje, con el que más tarde el autor llegaría a identificarse en su propia vida, se transformó con el tiempo un mito moderno en el que hoy en día continuamos encontrando una caracterización esencial de la época: su grotesca sed de poder, su facilidad para banalizar el mal convirtiendo todos sus actos en una farsa, lo han convertido en modelo no solo de los grandes tiranos, sino de la misma naturaleza del ejercicio de la autoridad en las sociedades espectaculares. Pero lo que en un día pudo parecer exagerado a sus contemporáneos, hoy en día parece, como poco, certero. El siglo XX lo hizo definitivamente suyo, mientras que el presente siglo no ha hecho sino potenciar la sensación de que el propio Jarry pudo quedarse corto al plantear los rasgos más excesivos de su criatura." . ubu ebook by alfred jarry 9781780012681 rakuten kobo. todo ubu by alfred jarry paperback 1981 from canuto. ubu. ubu editora home facebook. ubu disambiguation dc database fandom. todo ubu jarry alfred 9788402082855 books. ubu home
